

Austen trivia quiz

1	I was buried at St. Swithin's Church, in Bath, where I married my wife.	1	Rev George Austen	Father
2	I declined an offer of marriage because I enjoyed my independence and disliked his intended profession in the Church.	2	Eliza (Hancock) Austen	Cousin of Jane Austen. Married Henry Austen
3	I, my wife, and family, moved from the great house in Chawton to allow my brother to have a more profitable tenancy.	3	Francis Austen	Brother
4	I was described as "not at all pretty and very prim, unlike a girl of 12."	4	Jane Austen
5	I was invited to a reception at the Court of Dresden.	5	Edward Austen Knight	Brother
6	I was described as whimsical and affected.	6	Jane Austen
7	I was promoted from Volunteer, the lowliest rank in the British Navy, all the way to Admiral of the Fleet.	7	Francis Austen	Brother
8	My fiancée died from yellow fever in the Carribean. I have kept my vow to never marry anyone else.	8	Cassandra Austen	Sister
9	My shortcomings were a brusqueness of manner, a tendency to indulge in criticism and complaint, and a lack of consideration for the feelings of others.	9	Mary Lloyd Austen	Henry's second wife
10	I sold my pianoforte for 8 guineas.	10	Jane Austen
11	I lived the majority of my life in the household of Francis Cullum.	11	George Austen	Brother
12	I fought Americans in the War of 1812	12	Francis Austen	Brother
13	I edited the first edition of Jane Austen's letters, which was dedicated to Queen Victoria.	13	Edward Knatchbull-Hugessen	son of Niece (Fanny Knight)
14	In 1791 I had nothing better to do than to return to England, marry, and live happily ever after.	14	Edward Austen Knight	Brother
15	I served as an MP for the constituency of Dublin University.	15	Thomas Lefroy	Father-in-law of niece Anna Lefroy
16	I am an actress, famous for my supporting role in a film about first impressions.	16	Anna Chancellor	Grandchild of daughter of grandchild of Jane Austen's favorite niece.
17	At the age of 27 I had dittered long enough, and decided to marry.	17	Fanny Knight	Favorite Niece (Edward)
18	Jane described me as a poor animal. She said that I will be worn out before I'm 30.	18	Anna Lefroy	Niece (James Austen)
19	My cousin was engaged to Cassandra Austen	19	Mary Lloyd Austen	Henry's second wife
20	At the age of 35 I had brought 11 children into the world.	20	Elizabeth Bridges Knight	Sister in Law (Edward Austen Knight)
21	I was sent on a grand tour of Europe.	21	Edward Austen Knight	Brother
22	I wrote the first biography of Jane Austen	22	James Edward Austen-Leigh	Nephew (James)
23	I suffered from terrible seizures.	23	George Austen	Brother
24	I died of Cholera in Burma and was buried in Sri Lanka.	24	Charles Austen	Brother
25	I had the propensity to fall in love...often. I wrote a sonnett to Lady Catherine Powlett, then the following year fell in love with Charlotte Bryckes, sister of Anne Lefroy.	25	James Austen	Brother
26	I married a Baronet.	26	Fanny Knight	Favorite Niece (Edward)
27	My first husband, a Count, was executed in the French Revolution.	27	Eliza (Hancock) Austen	Cousin of Jane Austen. Married Henry Austen
28	I married above myself.	28	Rev George Austen	Jane's Father
29	I was described as a present plaything for my older sister and a future companion.	29	Jane Austen
30	I was first in my family to adopt the new fashion for short, unpowdered hair.	30	Charles Austen	Brother
31	Someone is circulating malicious rumors that my godfather is my "natural" father. Of course, the fact that I named my only son after him probably doesn't help...	31	Eliza (Hancock) Austen	Cousin of Jane Austen. Married Henry Austen
32	A sword was given to me by General Simon Bolivar of Venezuela.	32	Charles Austen	Brother
33	I had once been a pupil of the Rev George Austen and quietly become engaged to one of his daughters.	33	Rev Thomas Fowle	Fiance of Sister
34	I was known to follow in my brother's footsteps for most of my life.	34	Charles Austen	Brother
35	I was known as the handsome proctor of St John's College.	35	Rev George Austen	Father
36	I was elected MP for Sandwich, served as Lord of the Treasury, and was admitted to the Privy Council.	36	Edward Knatchbull-Hugessen	son of Niece (Fanny Knight)
37	If I was married to my thrid husband, instead of my second, I should still be in love with him...	37	Eliza (Hancock) Austen	Cousin of Jane Austen. Married Henry Austen
38	I was responsible for the titles of two novels, Persuasion and Northanger Abbey.	38	Henry Austen	Brother
39	Following in my father's footsteps, I also served in the Brisith Navy.	39	Charles John Austen	Nephew (Charles)
40	My younger brother and I published a literary magazine, The Loiterer, at Oxford.	40	James Austen	Brother
41	Born a premature, sickly child, I was subjected to a regiment of sea bathing. I still continue bathing not withstanding the severity of the weather and frost and snow.	41	Hastings De Feuillide	Son of Jane's Cousin, Eliza (Hancock) de Feuillide
42	In the middle of a gale, I set off in a small boat with only 4 other British sailors and succeeded in boarding and taking a 149-man, 18 gun French privateer.	42	Charles Austen	Brother
43	I said "Keep an exact account of all the money you receive and spend, lend none but where you are sure of an early repayment, and on no account whatever be persuaded to risk it by gaming."	43	Rev George Austen	Jane's Father
44	Once I had secured the affection of John Plumtre, I no longer wanted it!	44	Fanny Knight	Favorite Niece (Edward)
45	I am a believer in true love.	45	Anna Lefroy	Niece (James Austen)
46	I opened a boarding school for the sons of local gentlemen.	46	Rev George Austen	Father
47	I was appointed to a posting at the British Embassy in Berlin.	47	Henry Austen	Brother
48	After my mother passed away I was known as Mrs Austen.	48	Cassandra Austen	Sisters
49	I attended the Abbey School, kept by Mrs La Tourrelle, who had a cork leg.	49	Cassandra Austen	Sisters
50	By my daughter, I am described as the prefect father - neither negligent of this children's morals, like Mr Bennet, nor repressive of their emergent personalities, like Sir Thomas Bertram.	50	Rev George Austen	Jane's Father
51	I was born in Calcutta.	51	Eliza (Hancock) Austen	Cousin of Jane Austen. Married Henry Austen
52	I was known as the constant purveyor of doom.	52	Tyson Hancock	(God)father of Eliza Austen
53	I was pursued by several brothers.	53	Eliza (Hancock) Austen	Cousin of Jane Austen. Married Henry Austen
54	When my wife passed away I married her sister.	54	Charles Austen	Brother
55	All of my children survived childhood.	55	Cassandra Leigh Austen	Mother
56	I changed my christian name in order to be more fashionable when my mother and I moved to France.	56	Eliza (Hancock) Austen	Cousin of Jane Austen. Married Henry Austen
57	I was adopted.	57	Edward Austen Knight	Brother
58	People say that I am witty, although in business matters they are only half-right.	58	Henry Austen	Brother
59	My first husband fell victim to the guillotine!	59	Eliza (Hancock) Austen	Cousin of Jane Austen. Married Henry Austen
60	When war broke out with France, I raised, and was appointed captain of the Godmersham and Molash Company of the East Kent Volunteers.	60	Edward Austen Knight	Brother
61	I referer to myself as "the carcass" and as not being worthy of the waistcoat that my wife sent to me.	61	Tyson Hancock	(God)father of Eliza Austen
62	I told myself that I simply need to make a better "K".	62	Jane Austen
63	My own family sometimes forgot that I existed.	63	George Austen	Brother
64	To say that I am a man of few words would be an understatement.	64	George Austen	Brother
65	At the age of 15 I was first introduced to my future family.	65	Edward Austen Knight	Brother

Austen trivia quiz

66	I was called Neddy when I was a child.	66	Edward Austen Knight	Brother
67	My christian name is Elanor. Who am I?	67	Elanor Jackson	Second wife of Henry Austen
68	I purchased gold chains and topaz crosses for my sisters.	68	Charles Austen	Brother
69	I inherited 3 estates and the rectory at Steventon.	69	Edward Austen Knight	Brother
70	I was the High Sheriff of Kent.	70	Edward Austen Knight	Brother
71	I had to declare bankruptcy.	71	Henry Austen	Brother
72	I married a younger brother of my sister's husband.	72	Martha Lloyd Austen	Second Wife of Francis Austen
73	Nelson described me as "an excellent young man"	73	Francis Austen	Brother
74	While away at school, I was struck with an epidemic of putrid sore throat. Mother had to come to Southampton to rescue me.	74	Cassandra Austen	Sisters
75	I received a Bachelor of Arts, a Master of Arts, and a Bachelor of Divinity degree at Oxford	75	Rev George Austen	Father
76	My brother in law says that it will be easier for me to get a family than to provide for one.	76	Rev George Austen	Jane's Father
77	I have been described as quick, lively, matter-of-fact, with excellent sense and a good education.	77	Cassandra Leigh Austen	Mother
78	At 16 I spent a month with the Contesse and Mrs Hancock on Orchard Street. I was a handsome extrovert and made quite an impression.	78	Henry Austen	Brother
79	I said that if my older daughter's head was going to be cut off, her younger daughter would have her's cut off too.	79	Cassandra Leigh Austen	Mother
80	My husband is from Ireland.	80	Anna Lefroy	Niece (James Austen)
81	Godmersham Park was relinquished to me.	81	Edward Austen Knight	Brother
82	I married the daughter of the Attorney General of Bermuda.	82	Charles Austen	Brother