

ETYMOLOGY OF 1817: NEW WORDS/USAGE

Prepared By Vonnie R. Alto

Adjectives:

Africo-American, aglow, au naturel, bifoliate, blood-curdling, bothersome, bovine, cloudburst, cyclical, debutante, evanesce, gadabout, gastronomic, isochromatic lambency, opposite, organize, sentience, Spencerian, taffy, unrecognizable, visualize

Adverbs:

Oppositely, outdoors

Nouns:

belongings, sountherner, heliolatry, lotion, lumberman, Lunarian, graphite, tableau, Wellington, wrinkle, zoolatry, Nihilism, frump

Medical:

Craniotomy, finger-tip, tarsal, Parkinson's Disease described as "shaking palsy and paralysis,"

Inventions:

Kaleidoscope = "observer of beautiful forms."

Bicycle called "draisine." (Note: The word bicycle was coined in 1868).

Fashion:

pouf, tulle, trousseau

Colors:

Xanthic (yellowish)

Hessonite ("cinnamon-stone," a variety of garnet)

1817 - The very first bicycle: "Laufmaschine" (running machine) by Baron Karl von Drais

Online Etymology Dictionary: <http://etymonline.com/>

Two Pence Pieces: <https://twopencepieces.wordpress.com/>

Inventor-Strategies: <http://www.inventor-strategies.com/>